

Features the characters in the stories of Iranian and foreign Pykarsk

Elyas nooraei***

Associate professor of Persian language and literature Razi university,
Kermanshah, Iran

(Received: 25th, November, 2016, Accepted: 18th, June, 2016, Date of publication: August, 2018)

Pykarsk (picaresque) refers to a narrative style that emerged in the sixteenth century in Spain and one of the characteristics that are mercurial character and a bully. Some researchers believe that Pykarsk narrative style, in imitation of the genre could be investigated in Eastern literature is formed, what we have to do this research raised similarity in personality traits stories in world literature was Pykarsk. With this introduction we want to know what personality traits in fiction stories Pykarsk Iran and the world that our claim that these figures prove Pykarv. The research methodology utilizes analytical and library resources to evaluate and compare the characteristics of some of the stories of Iranian and foreign Pykarv deals.

Keywords: Pykarsk, personality, character, common features, Iranian Pykarsk.

---

* E-mail: nooraeielya@yahoo.com